

Project Engineer (Electrical Power and Software)

CV Submission deadline:

Salary range: Between 25-30k Euros (gross, per annum), depending on experience

Job description and Responsibilities

The ideal candidate will be responsible for assisting the Director of Operations and operational team with project documentation and control, job scheduling, and supervision of vendor task efforts. In order to be successful, this candidate should feel comfortable taking on many tasks that require various skills, and appropriately prioritising those tasks' completion.

Communication with the Transmission System Operators of the region and other Regional Centres in Europe.

All the communications (written or verbal) within and outside of the company will be in the English language.

Need to make decisions and provide solutions in short timeframe. Participation in proposals for the development of processes and tools.

Required Qualifications/Skills

- A University degree in Electrical Engineering with emphasis on Power Systems analysis.
- Experience in a similar role as a project coordinator, project engineer, or project manager would be desirable, but not essential
- A postgraduate degree will be highly appreciated
- Fluency in the English language.
- Team player and trustworthy
- Strong interpersonal and communication skills
- Strong experience in Microsoft Office Suite
- Familiarity with rules, regulations, best practices and performance standards

Responsibilities

- Assist with management to ensure project success
- Ensure project plan is moving forward to meet anticipated deadlines
- Responsible for RFI and submittal process
- Processes owner and project logistics related issues